Quotes of the Month

“If it was raining soup he’d be out in the front yard with a fork.”

- Old Southern Saying

“You couldn’t hit sand if you fell off a camel!”

- Country Saying

“I hope when I die that people say about me, ‘Boy! That guy sure owed me a lot of money’ ”.

- Jack Handy, Humorist

“If a fly lost its wings would they call it a walk?”

- Musings of an old RCer

“Why is it called lipstick if you can still move your lips?”

- The Old RCer Again

New Members

No new members were added to the club roster in May.

Communications

- The status of the WCRC property is unchanged. The sale of our current site is still scheduled for mid to late June. We are working on a proposal to give to the Greenville County Council about using the Enoree landfill as the next home of WCRC. Also, John Dillewyn has written the ReWa people to try to determine if there is any possibility of using the Durbin Creek property for a site.
- We are planning our Sunday Social for Sunday, June 10, 2018. Lunch begins at 1:00 pm.
- We have settled on a proposed layout at the Enoree landfill and are working on a proposal to give to Greenville County Council in the near future
