Quotes of the Month

“Seriously, I don’t know when that UFO landed and dumped all those stupid people, but they apparently aren’t coming back for them.”

- Daffy Duck

“Have you ever listened to someone for a while and wondered ... ‘who ties your shoelaces for you?’ ”

- Anonymous

“Wi-Fi went down for five minutes, so I had to talk with my family. They seem like nice people.”

- A Millennial

“If it’s the Psychic Network, why do they need a phone number?”

- Robin Williams

New Members

We added two more members at the January meeting: Bob Templeton- Pilot, and Dennis Headberg- Novice. Good to have you, gentlemen. If the weather holds we hope to see you at the field soon.

Communications

- The Spring Fly-In is planned for April 22, 2017 with April 29, 2017 as the rain date. The sanction request has been submitted.
- The Props 'n Brats competition will continue in 2017 with Tim Pritchett as the coordinator. There will be 7 events again this year. The dates will be published later. The members in attendance approved a motion to open up the event to other clubs.
- Triple Tree Aerodrome will host an NSRCA national pattern competition September 14-17, 2017. The members in attendance approved a motion to form a committee to support and coordinate the TTA event. Tim Pritchett will start drafting people to serve.
- Roper Mountain Space Day is scheduled for March 11, 2017. John Dillewyn will coordinate the activities. There is a very small flying area at the "Living Farm" area of Roper Mountain Science Center. The WCRC portion runs from 9 am to about 2 pm. Adam Enggasser is trying to coordinate a drone racing demonstration.
- The members in attendance at the January Club Meeting approved a motion to hold a "bring your wife to fly" event as an after church social. We'll have pot luck meals with optional buddy box experience on Sunday May 7, 2017.
